Motion by Councillor Burbach

Seconded by Councillor Wordofa

THAT the delegation by Jamie Frichithavong be heard.

Carried

Jamie Frichithavong requested to address Council to present the petition: Save the London-to-Toronto GO Train Route: Preserving Essential Connectivity. Highlights of the presentation included:

- railways connecting communities and that they should remain accessible, affordable and dependable for all;
- mass transit significantly reducing environmental impact compared to individual vehicles;
- many Stratford residents having used the train to access larger cities;
- access to rail transportation reducing traffic congestion while traveling to larger cities;
- rail transportation connecting rural residents to opportunities in larger cities;
- rail transit helping to obtain net zero carbon emissions reduction targets;
- the petition having over 2,500 signatures which speaks to the current issues with the Via Rail line;
- dozens of comments from residents who rely on the rail service for their daily transportation having been received; and
- if the trains ran daily and were affordable, more citizens would be able to access this mode of transportation.

R2023-452
